

GOOD DEEDS TREE

Things You Will Need

Colour Printer OR Your Local Professional Printing Service

White Paper x 3 (Size: A4)

Cardboard x 2 (Size: A4)

Glue

Scissors

Instructions

- 1. Use a colour printer to print out the designs. (Colours may vary from the image displayed on screen depending on the printer and type of paper used.)
- 2. Using glue, stick the 2 prints with the tree trunks onto cardboard.
- 3. Cut out the 2 tree trunks and cut along the dotted line down the centre
- 4. Slot the 2 tree trunks (A + B) together through the centre.
- 5. Cut out the coloured leaves and write a good deed on the back of each one OR colour in and use the leaves with deeds already on them, OR print the deeds on the back of the sheet with the coloured leaves.
- 6. Throughout the month of Ramadan encourage the child to try to do one of the good deeds each day. Every time a good deed is performed they can stick the leaf onto the tree. The goal is to see how many good deeds can be collected by the end of Ramadan and finish with a fully bloomed tree.
